Created from the idea that a home is more than a place to dwell, THE WELL Coconut Grove is your gateway to living your best life, in balance and harmony with yourself and your surroundings. Nestled among stately oaks and swaying palms of one of Miami's original waterfront neighborhoods, THE WELL is a world dedicated to finding your true nature.

Here, you are invited to rediscover the simple joys of a wellness-centered life – the peacefulness of a mind quieted by meditation or yoga, the power of a cleansing breath, the exhilaration of breaking through a fitness plateau, a renewed focus on community and relationships, or the utter bliss of a restful night's sleep.

These are just the beginnings of what THE WELL Coconut Grove makes possible, right in this special place you call home.

Wellness

THE WELL Brand

THE WELL Residences are more than luxury amenities, high-end finishes, or access to spa-level services. It's a consciously curated lifestyle that prioritizes feeling better in tangible and intangible ways alike. It's recognizing that physical health and mental well-being are intrinsically linked. It's being able to notice your heart rate slow as you walk through the front door. It's an exciting city that awaits in every direction, but you'd never know it from the tranquility of your rooftop pool.

We deliver it through a dedicated team of experts across the entire wellness spectrum —clinically trained physicians, lifestyle coaches, nutritionists, personal trainers, movement specialists and consultants who all share the same desire to support you on your journey to the mind, body and spirit you've always wanted.

They say that wellness is an endless pursuit, but like all lifelong passions, it also has a starting point. THE WELL Coconut Grove is that place. Welcome home.

Pursuing Your Best Self

Inside all of us, there is an innate desire to reach our fullest potential. In western psychology, we call it “self-actualization,” and it’s built around the idea that when our basic needs are met, we are then free to pursue higher-level goals towards personal growth and development. THE WELL supports that journey by caring for mind, body, and spirit with a signature blend of expert preventive medicine, ancient healing rituals, and proven lifestyle practices.

Entirely Personalized

Whether you know what you need to achieve wellness or want recommendations from highly trained experts, THE WELL offers an extensive selection of tools, services, products and experiences all designed to enhance results. We pair these with Mindful Movement and fitness, functional medicine and health coaching, bodywork, massage and more all under one roof with one goal in mind: to help you feel your best.

We Did The Research So You Don't Have To

We hold ourselves to high standards because we believe wellness is a serious discipline. As such, we’ve tailored our services, design, guest experience and our team to reflect a level of excellence befitting that commitment. Our practitioners are New York Times-bestselling authors, former presidential advisors, major league sports team doctors and more. From our Chief Medical Officer and Advisor of Mindful Movement to our licensed massage therapists and Chinese Medicine practitioners, we have built a world-class team of industry leaders in health and wellness.

East-Meets-West, Whole-Person Care

Our expert team of healers and practitioners deliver integrated, personalized, holistic healthcare that works, by collaborating across Eastern healing practices and Western medicine to create a wellness plan for you that addresses the mental, emotional and spiritual aspects of your well-being.

Our Approach

There are five key pillars of wellness that serve as the framework for THE WELL and how we integrate modern medicine and ancient healing practices to deliver whole-person care.

Food & Nutrition

Food is medicine; it can harm or heal us. Learning your body's unique needs can empower you to better nourish and care for it every day.

Movement & Performance

Mindful movement and functional fitness - tailored to your needs, abilities and goals - fuel both your mental stamina and physical strength.

Mind & Spirit

There is a proven and powerful link between the mind and the body - caring for your mental, spiritual and emotional health optimizes your overall well-being.

Body & Skin Care

Massages and facials aren't just feel-good spa treatments — they are healing body treatments (just a few of many that we offer) that are critical to the health of your mind, body and spirit.

Lifestyle & Community

Simple lifestyle practices and a supportive, inspiring community are keys to long-term health and happiness.

Why Choose THE WELL?

Authentic wellness is not a one-size-fits-all proposition. If it were, we could all follow a single plan and see the same results. The reality is that wellness is as nuanced as the individual and we all need something different to achieve our own personal goals. At THE WELL, we focus on holistic, whole-person wellness through a personalized, integrative and comprehensive approach centered around:

Team Of Experts

From our Chief Medical Officer and our Director of Mindful Movement, to our licensed massage therapists, we connect you with world-class experts in their fields of health and wellness.

Integrated Whole-Person Care

We integrate modern medicine and ancient healing practices to address the physical, mental and spiritual aspects of your well-being.

Personalized Robust Offering

Wellness looks different for everyone - that's why we offer a variety of services, products and experiences to personalize your journey towards better health.

Quality and Excellence

We did our research, so you don't have to. We study both proven practices and leading-edge developments and refine our experience to reflect the highest levels of safety, effectiveness and enjoyment.

What We Believe In

Evidence-Based

We value evidence of proven effectiveness, whether it's a scientifically-backed solution or a healing method practiced for centuries.

Preventative

We believe healthcare should focus not only on curing illness, but also on preventing it to help people feel good every day.

Personalized

We know that wellness is not one-size-fits-all. It looks, feels and affects everyone differently — at every stage of the journey.

Whole-Person

We are committed to whole-person care by addressing each element of well-being: physical, mental and spiritual.

Equity-Minded

We are dedicated to remaining mindful that not everyone is starting from the same place and aware of the countless factors included in truly being and feeling well.

Community-Focused

We are community-focused — understanding that the well-being of each of us as individuals is deeply impacted by the well-being of our planet and society. We can't do one without the other.

“We call THE WELL your one-stop-shop for wellness for a reason - it’s true. Rather than address only a few aspects of wellness like fitness or mental health, we’ve assembled a comprehensive platform that also enhances social, spiritual, emotional and work-life balance in a single destination.”

— Kane Sarhan, CoFounder & CCO

Life at
THE WELL
Coconut Grove

Life in Coconut Grove

There's always been a sort of magic to Coconut Grove, an independent spirit that moves at its own pace and is motivated by its own force. Memories run deep in this place. In days long ago, Caribbean settlers chose a secluded patch of land to call their own. Intrepid explorers came by sea and decided this was now home. Naturalists marveled at the abundance of unknown flora and fauna. Then came the artists, authors and musicians, adding to a growing tapestry of eclectic personalities.

In this diversity rose a singular voice – a personal pride in breaking with tradition and transcending the everyday. It is an ethos that has defined the Grove for generations.

As you move throughout the Grove, you feel it all around you. The locals walk the neighborhood, eager to stop and smell the orchids along the way. Rigid schedules do not exist here. You go from the cafe to the bookstore to cocktails as if pulled by the nearby tides. Sunlight falls in dappled patchwork beneath impressive banyan trees. Families laugh together at the park. Kids walk to school. Dogs rest lazily next to owners at bistro tables. You catch the smile of a favorite farmer's market vendor and you've unlocked 'regular' status. In season, neighbors pile free mangos and avocados on curbside tables.

Could this really be part of Miami, the city being hailed as the next world capital on par with New York and Los Angeles? From the Grove that all seems hours away, which is precisely why it holds a special place in the hearts of those who live here. It is also why it serves as the perfect location for a home that celebrates all that it means to live well.

The circular hot and cold plunges help relax muscles and joints post-swim, improves blood circulation and supports lung capacity. Both are surrounded by ergonomic lounge chairs and private cabanas for complete poolside comfort — and complete privacy when you want it.
